

Israel Planes Blast Bases in Lebanon

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Israeli planes attacked Arab guerrilla bases in Lebanon over the weekend, and ground forces battled infiltrators on the Israeli-held Golan Heights. But quiet prevailed along the Suez Canal for the second day of the Egyptian-Israeli cease-fire.

The air attack Sunday on the southwest slopes of Mt. Hermon was in retaliation for guerrilla raids on Israeli frontier settlements and military positions over the weekend, an Israeli spokesman said. A Lebanese army spokesman said the raiders burned crops and knocked out electrical power in three villages known to be guerrilla strongholds—Kfar Shuba, Shaaba and Jersa.

Arab guerrillas in Lebanon fired mortars at an Israeli border settlement in Northern Galilee Sunday night, wounding one of the settlers, the military command in Tel Aviv said today. Israeli troops returned the fire, he said.

Guerrillas from Jordan claimed killing or wounding 20 Israelis in an attack Sunday on military positions five miles north of the Dead Sea. But a military spokesman in Tel Aviv said no Israeli casualties were reported in the incident.

The Israeli command said two guerrillas were killed and eight others captured Saturday after a small force from the Syria-based Popular Front General Command infiltrated into the occupied Golan Heights. A spokesman said the guerrillas were carrying explosives, mines and weapons and apparently were intercepted on a sabotage mission.

In Amman, the Jordanian capital, machine-gun battles broke out between the Arab Palestine Organization, which supports Egypt's acceptance of the cease-fire, and the Marxist Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine, which opposes it. Both sides said one child was killed and nine other persons were wounded, and each blamed the other.

Commandos from the Popular Front clashed twice last week with guerrillas from Action, another pro-Egyptian command group in Jordan. Two men were killed and 10 wounded in those clashes.

The Israeli cabinet met for more than five hours Sunday amid reports of strong government feeling that the United States had failed to guarantee Israeli interests in its campaign to put over the American cease-fire proposal.

A government announcement said only that the Cabinet "reviewed various aspects of Israeli-U.S. relations." But official informants said Israel was angered because the U.N. announcement of the start of new peace efforts did not make clear that Israel would not withdraw from any occupied territory without the recognition of secure frontiers in a peace treaty with the Arabs.

Tel Aviv contends Washington should have guaranteed the inclusion of the Israeli attitude in the U.N. announcements.

Cairo Radio congratulated the United States Sunday for this omission, saying Egypt considers it an "encouraging step toward the implementation of the U.S. peace initiative." The Egyptian commentary also charged Israel was trying to

Arkla Tactics Lashed by Candidate

By HARRY KING

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP) — James Malone Jr. of Lonoke charged today that the "political machine" has contributed "hundreds of thousands of dollars" to the campaigns of former Gov. Orval Faubus and Hayes McClerkin.

Malone is opposing Faubus, McClerkin and five others in the race for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination. Malone said Jess Odom, a Little Rock businessman, distributed "machine funds" to Faubus' campaign and that Raymond Rebsamen, also a Little Rock businessman, served the same purpose in McClerkin's campaign.

Malone had charged last week that McClerkin and Faubus were on the "board of directors" of the machine and that they were "fake foes."

Malone said today at a news conference that the machine had appointed men "to watch the distribution of the monies in the two camps."

He said H. L. Hembree, son-in-law of Bob Young of Fort Smith, and George Cook, "front-runner for many of W. R. Stephens' smaller business interests" watch over the money in the McClerkin camp. Young is president of Arkansas Best Corp. and Stephens is chairman of the board of Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. Malone identified the "money watcher" in Faubus' camp as Clarence Thornbrough, an employee of Arkla.

Malone also said that Faubus had made reference earlier in the campaign to a "meeting on the mountain" in an attempt to "create a subtle impression that the machine was dissolved." Faubus had said that a select group of men met at Winrock Farms in an attempt to set up a "hidden government."

Pornography Law Repeal Recommended

By JIM ADAMS
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The President's Commission on Obscenity and Pornography has outlined tentative recommendations calling for repeal of all laws prohibiting adult Americans from purchasing or possessing pornographic films, books and other material.

But the commission said in a preliminary report that local, state and federal laws should protect children from exposure to smut, and that adults should be protected from unsolicited exposure through public displays or unsolicited mail advertisements.

"The commission does not believe, however," says the draft report, "that there is any warrant for the continuation of government controls upon what sexual materials may be made available to adults who wish to read or view such materials."

The recommendations obtained by the Associated Press have not been approved by the 18-member commission which reportedly will meet most of this week before issuing its final report, scheduled for release at the end of August.

The recommendations cover pornographic materials, but not live sex shows. They follow the lead of Denmark which lifted all restrictions against pornography for adults—but not children—last year.

Signs Bill to Extend Jobless Insurance

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon today signed a bill under which unemployment insurance will be extended to about 4.7 million more workers and extra benefits will be available in times of high unemployment.

Congress balked at proposals to bring employees of large firms under the unemployment insurance system, but it did vote to include other large groups not hitherto covered.

These include an estimated 2.121 million employees of non-profit organizations, 1.132 million employees of smaller business firms, 940,000 employees of state hospitals and colleges, 210,000 salesmen, route drivers and similar workers, 190,000 persons engaged in processing agricultural products and 160,000 Americans employed abroad by U.S. firms.

The new law also provides for unemployment payments to be extended as much as 13 weeks, with federal help, when the national percentage of insured unemployment reaches 4.5 per cent, or in an individual state when the rate increases 20 per cent over the preceding year and is at least 4 per cent. The extra benefits would be effective generally beginning in 1972, but provision is made for states to start them sooner if they wish.

The federal unemployment tax is increased one-tenth of one per cent. The base on which it is levied goes from $3,000 of wages to $4,200, effective in 1972.

Friday at Prek Luong, slightly less than five miles from Phnom Penh, indicated that the enemy has moved within rocket and artillery range of the capital.

The spokesman said enemy concentrations around Phnom Penh were not as large as they were a month ago, but he said the enemy strength was increasing steadily. For the moment, however, there was no solid indication that the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong were about to launch an offensive against the city.

The spokesman claimed 10 enemy killed at Saang and said fighting continued there today. The district capital, on the Bassac River, has been hit repeatedly since it is on one of the main enemy infiltration routes from Vietnam to the base camp area the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese are building up near the Kiri Rom plateau.

New fighting also was reported at Kiri Rom, 55 miles southwest of Phnom Penh. The Cambodian command said a large government patrol was am-

U.S. Pays $400 Head to Help Finance Some Luxury Liner Cruises

By JAMES R. POLK
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The government is paying as much as $400 per passenger in federal aid to finance luxury cruises aboard ocean liners to such exotic ports as Hong Kong, Tahiti, Jamaica and Bora Bora.

Even a bubbly New Year's Eve party aboard a ship cruising off the California coast is covered by the rich flow of federal aid.

The payments are part of a special subsidy to American passenger ships that has cost taxpayers an estimated $240 million over the past five years.

The aid was begun for national defense reasons before World War II. But now, Government records show the only passenger liners benefitting from the payments are 10 cruise ships sailing the South Pacific and the Caribbean.

Congress, fed with plush campaign contributions from both seamen's unions and the shipping industry, moved this year to expand the aid to more

The subsidies go mainly to pay the difference in the higher wages for American seamen as compared to the low-paid crews on foreign ships.

The aid can run as high as half the total cost of a cruise ship's voyage.

Cruise ships don't even need to go to a foreign port to get the government support. The S.S. President Wilson plans a three-day New Year's Eve "party cruise" off San Francisco this year, and a company official says it will qualify for aid. The ship sailed to Mexico last New Year's Eve.

Shipping officials say that without this federal aid to pay their higher wage costs, they would be priced out of business and the privately owned American fleet would be certain to vanish from the seas.

The aid law makes keeping

of the rest of the world the American man is an object of ridicule for what they feel is his abject servility to women.

While he is still waddling around in his diapers, a little boy is able to punch a toy-stealing little girl in the mouth as if she were just another ordinary human being.

But in kindergarten he is taught that little girls are superior and extraordinary human beings made of delicate fibers. He is browbeaten or bottom-spanded into saluting them, and he goes on saluting them until the end of his days. The female sex gains an edge on him it never loses.

It is not men but women who have the better union in America.

A man is expected to light a woman's cigarette for her, leap to his feet when she enters or leaves a room, push both his and her way through revolving doors, and buy her lunches.

A man is also expected to marry a woman when she wants him to, name his kids after her side of the family, and work himself to death earning the money to buy her a bigger car, a nicer home, more expensive vacation trips, and a better hair dryer than the wife next door has.

When he does die, it is further expected of him that he will have had the gallantry and foresight to leave her enough money so that she can spend comfortably, if not luxuriously, the seven or eight years of widowhood she will enjoy before joining him in his tomb—the one she chose, not him.

Does all this sound like he treated her like a mere sexual object?

What do women really want? There are days when the average man feels that what they want is "all there is—and what ever is left."

Whatever they want, men don't have it. They've been giving everything they had to to women for quite some time now.

bushed and suffered heavy casualties, with five killed and 39 wounded. He said the enemy left 39 bodies on the battlefield. Most of the action in South Vietnam was reported in the northern provinces.

The U.S. Command also announced that the total number of U.S. forces in Vietnam dropped by 350 last week, to 406,350.

Showdown on Antimissile Expansion

By LAWRENCE L. KNUTSON
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A Senate drive to stop expansion of the Safeguard antimissile system may be near—or past—the point of victory, an Associated Press survey shows.

Fifty senators said they were either committed to vote against or strongly opposed to an amendment to expand the Safeguard system from two to four sites. Three said they were undecided.

If the 50 remain firm and the three undecided senators vote as they did on the Safeguard proposal last year, the final vote will be 51-48 against expansion a move that could jeopardize the entire program.

Only 99 senators are expected to vote since Sen. Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D., is hospitalized. Forty-six senators said they would back the Nixon administration and urge expansion.

President Nixon won a one-vote Senate victory last summer on the initial decision to begin Safeguard deployment. This year, as last, the Senate is so closely divided on the issue that last minute shifts could change the vote tally and determine the outcome.

But if the Senate votes to cut $332 million from the $1.3 billion Safeguard authorization, it could put the Defense Department in the uncomfortable position of justifying the expense of further work on the ABM sites at Malstrom Air Force Base in Montana and Grand Forks Air Force Base in North Dakota.

A report of independent scientists released last week said if the two additional Safeguard sites were solely to defend Minutemen retaliatory missiles sites, the expansion program could not be justified and work "should not proceed."

The report was prepared by a team headed by Lawrence H. O'Neill, president of the River-side Research Institute.

An amendment also has been offered by Sen. Harold Hughes, D-Iowa, to strip all funds for Safeguard except those dedicated to research and development on an improved missile defense system. At present, it is considered to have little chance of passage.

hit with what appeared to be birdshot.

Mayor Harold Campbell said city officials met late Sunday afternoon decided against imposing a curfew. All policemen were on duty Sunday.

He said the situation did not seem to merit a curfew. He said Camden had not had racial problems previously and he hoped this was an "isolated" occurrence.

The mayor said he did not know what sparked the trouble.

"It is hard to tell what started it," he said. "It could just be an isolated incident."

Police said that during the disturbance a service station attendant, M. O. Stephenson, about 45, of El Dorado was kicked by a group of Negroes and the windows were smashed at his station. A truck was overturned. About $350 was also reported missing.

Police said bricks shattered the windows of several nearby businesses as about 300 blacks roamed the area.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer HOLLYWOOD (AP) — One of television's most attractive father images is played by a determined bachelor: Bill Bixby. With 11 new episodes of "The Courtship of Eddie's Father" already completed, Bixby sailed into the ABC studio commissary, still disturbed by a scene he had just finished.

"I just hit Brandon for the first time," Bixby said with tragic emphasis, referring to 8-year-old Brandon Cruz who plays his son Eddie. "It was important that I give him a good belt on the bottom. Tears sprang into his eyes and he said, 'You don't love me.'"

"I think it is very important that other kids have a chance to see what parents go through when they have to punish them."

During the ABC series' first season, the relationship between the widower father and his son — between Bixby and Brandon — made the difference between a routine situation comedy and a warm often touching relationship. One result is that Bixby has heard opinions on parenthood from many — young and old.

"When I go out on the beach at Malibu, it's like I'm a Pied Piper. The way kids flock around. They don't touch, they just follow," he said.

"I get fascinating mail and I read every line of it. From kids from 5 to high school. Even college students. One guy stopped me in a parking lot to tell me he and his son never really had much communication. But now they go into a room alone together to watch my show. The wife and the daughter watch it, too, but in another room."

"And after its over, they have a question and answer period, just the two of them."

As Bixby paused to attack a medium-rare hamburger, Brandon bounced up to the table and hurled himself against Bixby's arm, talking excitedly about a trip in a camper he will take with his real family during the show's approaching hiatus.

"For six months before we started the series, Brandon and I spent a lot of time together, just becoming friends," Bixby

Wedding Vows Are Repeated

MRS. GENE JINES

Miss Sarah Clarice Payne and Walter Gene Jines were united in marriage July 17 in Berry Chapel at Ouachita University with Rev. Dan Blake officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Payne of Malvern. Mr. Jines is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Jines of 1506 Pecan Street.

Nuptial music was provided by Miss Ouida Eppinette of North Little Rock, and Miss Ginger Murdoch, soloist, of Atkins.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of silk organza over taffeta. The dress was accented with hand-beaded lace on the neck and cuffs. Her illusion veil was accented by matching lace. She carried a bouquet of daisies and gladioli, centered with white rose buds.

Mrs. Lon Hardin of Ft. Smith, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Janice Bridges of Arkadelphia, Miss Nancy Fray of North Little Rock, and Miss Kathy Ottwell of Malvern.

Misses Charlotte and Kathryn Hardin of Ft. Smith, nieces of the bride were candlelighters.

Danny Ponder of Nashville served as best man. Groomsmen were Bill Coffee and Wayne Norvell of Hope, and Larry Russell of Hot Springs. Ushers were Joe and Paul Payne, brothers of the bride.

A reception was held at the drawing room of Flenniken Memorial. Serving were Misses Sharon Huneycutt, Junanne Reynolds, Debbie Watson, and Pat Westbrook of Hope and Mrs. Bob M. Davis of Arkadelphia. Mrs. John S. Payne, Jr. presided at the bride's book.

The couple are now at home in Arkadelphia, where both will attend Ouachita University in the fall.

Chivers said Purcell has "publicly committed to provide a more equitable share of the state turnback funds to the municipalities."

Comptons Make Campaign a Family Affair

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Comptons have made a family affair out of Bomb Compton's race for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

Mrs. Margaret Compton says that there is not one paid campaign worker on the staff. The majority of the work is done by the Compton children, Bob Jr., 17, Cathleen, 14, and Walter, 8, in addition to other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Compton, 40, says she goes with her husband to rallies and political meetings when possible. The rest of the time, each member of the Compton family goes in a different direction to gain support for Compton.

The children have enlisted the aid of their friends, and Mrs. Compton says they are very enthusiastic.

Mrs. Compton said that the campaign has been fun for all the family. She says at the end of the day they all trade stories, many of them humorous, about their experiences.

Many of the jokes center around the "Bob Who?" theme, a campaign slogan used by Compton to draw attention to the fact he is a political unknown and to tantalize voter interest.

Mrs. Compton said while writing a check a clerk asked if she was going to sign it "Mrs. Bob Who?"

She said she did answer to Mrs. Bob Who and was frequently introduced that way.

A native of Camden, Mrs. Compton is the daughter of a Presbyterian minister, Dr. Horace Villiee. Her mother and father now live in Mississippi.

Mrs. Compton said her father attempted to dissuade Compton from running for governor. He told Compton that they had a comfortable life in El Dorado and should not get involved in politics.

However, Mrs. Compton said that once Compton had convinced her father he was determined, Dr. Villiee had offered to help in the campaign.

Mrs. Compton said the entire effort was a "poor man's campaign" with volunteers manning the headquarters.

She said she thought education was one of the most important issues in the campaign. Mrs. Compton said that El Dorado "had been very fortunate" with its school administration in that there had been very little conflict over desegregating the schools.

She said she had never actively worked in a campaign before, but that she and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Jack Compton of Little Rock, had sworn they would help in someone else's campaign during the next election because they now knew what volunteer help means.

Mrs. Compton described herself as the "housewife" type, who likes to be involved. "I putter at golf, but I don't do anything real well," she said.

At El Dorado she is the past president of the Junior Charity League, a member of the Presbyterian Church and a member of three PTAs.

She describes her husband as "very dynamic... a good lawyer."

McClerkin Keeps Faubus Attack Going

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Hayes McClerkin, a candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, says it would be an "exercise in futility" for Democrats to nominate former Gov. Orval Faubus for governor.

McClerkin told supporters at his Little Rock headquarters Saturday that Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller's research staff would tear Faubus' 12-year administration to shreds in the general election campaign.

"I have a very small file on Faubus compared to the one Rockefeller has on him," McClerkin said. "All of this is to say that Winthrop Rockefeller would flood the state with material concerning the shortcomings of the Faubus administration."

"This material will convince the most unconcerned of voters that Orval mishandled the public trust given him as governor," McClerkin said. "Any close examination of the Faubus administration will show that it came up long on politics and short on public service."

Send your teenage questions to YOUTH ASKED FOR IT, care of Helen Help Us! this newspaper. WHO COMES FIRST—TO VISIT?

Dear Helen: We had an argument, and I bet my husband five dollars on it. I say the prospective bride's parents should go to visit the man's parents first after the engagement is announced. If I'm wrong he'll get scrambled eggs instead of steak because my bets come out of the housekeeping money. Please settle it for us. —MOTHER OF BOYS

Dear Mother: When is a winner not a winner? When he bets with his wife! While your husband eats scrambled eggs, he can quote a well-known etiquette book which says, "After the acceptance of the engagement...correctly the parents of the man go to visit the parents of the girl...at least his mother goes to see hers at once."

Seems to me an invitation to an informal lunch or dinner might be friendlier but, at any rate, the parents of the future bridegroom make the overtures. —H. Dear Helen:

The other day I read (again) that the biggest cause of marriage failure is not sex, but finances. The latest survey, conducted by doctors among their patients indicated that financial problems accounted for 25 percent of marital failures, while sexual incompatibility rated last place on the last, with only three percent of those queried indicating it was most responsible for their divorce or separation.

When my wife and I got married, we bought the regulation marriage manuals which we didn't need, because there was no problem in this department. But we soon discovered we were only compatible in bed. She thought money was crass. You should never discuss it—just spend it even if I didn't have it. After five thousand fights, you begin to see that those manuals leave out all the important things, such as "physical" doesn't make it unless you can get your minds together too. —OLIVER

Dear Oliver: True! But if they put out marriage manuals about "getting your minds together," who'd buy 'em? —H. Dear Helen:

All over the country these "population bomb" clubs are springing up, with members pledged to have no more than two children. Fine. I'm for it! But what if the word doesn't spread to the "welfare society"—those people whose lack of education or drive or whatever keeps them down?

It isn't enough to say "we'll have two or less," or stump for legislation that will tax large families (welfare people don't pay taxes). What we need is more free (even compulsory) birth control for the poor everywhere, not just in the United States. —FRANCIS

Dear Francis: Those "population bomb" people are working on this too—and so are the Ford Foundation, the Planned Parenthood Society, and countless birth control clinics in depressed areas. Take

Page Three heart, Francis for the last few years our birth rate has been declining, with the largest percentage drop yet in 1969. Haven't you noticed the dearth of pregnant women in supermarkets? Pennant Fever Spreading to Pirates

By BRUCE LOWITT
Associated Press Sports Writer

"We have to do it right now," said Roberto Clemente.

"These games aren't crucial," said Willie Stargell.

When players on the same baseball team—the Pittsburgh Pirates in this case—start talking in opposite directions it generally means one thing:

Pennant fever is spreading.

It was running rampant in the Bucs' clubhouse—although no one would admit it—after they took advantage of New York's pitching problems Sunday to turn back the Mets 8-3 and regain a 3½-game lead in the National League East.

The teams wrap up the four-game series tonight with the Mets sending their ace, 16-game winner Tom Seaver, against Dock Ellis, 12-8.

In Sunday's other games, San Diego turned back Atlanta 4-2 in the only other single contest. In doubleheader action, Philadelphia beat Chicago 6-1 after the Cubs won the opener 4-1; Montreal nipped St. Louis 7-6, then lost to the Cardinals 4-0; San Francisco ripped Houston 6-1 after the Astros grabbed the first game 7-5 in 10 innings, and Los Angeles shellacked Cincinnati 7-3 and 13-3.

In the American League, the New York Yankees split a pair of 11-inning games with Baltimore, winning the opener 6-4 and losing the nightcap 12-9; Cleveland divided a twin-bill with Washington, dropping the first game 7-3 and capturing the second 6-3; California beat the Chicago White Sox twice, 5-0 and 6-3; Oakland swept two from Minnesota 3-0 and 6-3; Boston topped Detroit 7-4 and Milwaukee defeated Kansas City 4-2.

The Pirates, shooting for their first pennant in a decade, wouldn't permit themselves the luxury of thinking too far ahead in the season—they've got 48 games to play—but they're not above speculating about the opposition.

"It's too early to say what's going to happen," Clemente insisted, "but we have to do it right now. We have to get into a good position for that last month." The Mets and Pirates play seven of their final 10 games this year against each other.

Nolan Ryan was nursing a 3-2 lead when the Bucs opened the seventh inning with a walk and put runners on second and third as Ryan threw Matty Alou's sacrifice bunt past first base.

In came Ray Sadecki who proceeded to give up three more walks—one of them intentional—plus a pair of run-scoring singles and a sacrifice fly and the Pirates led 6-3. They added two more in the eighth on Clemente's triple, a sacrifice fly and Stargell's 23rd homer.

San Diego's Nate Colbert and Ed Spiezio cracked solo homers off Pat Jarvis as the Padres beat the Atlanta right-hander for the first time in six decisions. Henry Aaron of the Braves hit his 33rd homer.

Barry Lersch of the Phils made a successful debut as a starter, scattering eight hits while Tony Taylor crashed a two-run homer in the nightcap. The Cubs won the opener as pitcher Milt Pappas drilled a triple to trigger a two-run eighth-inning rally.

St. Louis rookie left-hander Jerry Reuss twirled a two-hitter to silence Montreal's bats in the second game of their twinbill. Bobby Wine's two-run tie-breaking double highlighted a four-run seventh inning that paved the way to the Expos' first-game triumph.

San Francisco scrambled back from a four-run deficit and led the opener in the ninth but Houston's Joe Morgan unloaded a two-run homer in the next frame. Frank Johnson's two-run double in the sixth gave the Giants all the runs they needed in the nightcap.

Los Angeles unleashed a 35-hit attack—24 of them in the second game—to cut the runaway lead in the Western Division to 13 games. Ted Sizemore and the Dodgers attack with seven hits for six runs in the first.

Angels, A's Back in Title Chase

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

When Alex Johnson and Don Mincher came marching home, the California Angels and Oakland A's each did an abrupt about-face ... and headed back into the American League's West Division title chase on the double.

Johnson, back from a two-week military reserve hitch, smacked a home run and three singles Sunday as the Angels took a doubleheader from the Chicago White Sox 5-0 and 6-3.

Mincher, a former Minnesota slugger, socked two homers, a double and two singles against his old teammates, delivering six runs in Oakland's 3-0, 6-3 Twin killing.

The two sweeps cut the Twins' lead in the West to seven games over the runner-up Angels and eight over the third-place A's.

Elsewhere in the AL, Baltimore and New York divided 11-inning struggles, the Yanks taking the opener 6-4 and the Orioles winning the nightcap 12-9; Washington split with Cleveland, bowing 6-3 after a 7-3 victory; Boston downed Detroit 7-4 and Milwaukee beat Kansas City 4-2.

In National League play, Los Angeles won a pair from Cincinnati 7-3 and 13-3; Pittsburgh whipped the New York Mets 8-3; Philadelphia topped Chicago 6-1 after a 4-1 loss to the Cubs; Montreal nipped St. Louis 7-6, then fell to the Cardinals 2-0; Houston shaded San Francisco 7-5 in 10 innings but dropped the nightcap 6-1, and San Diego defeated Atlanta 4-2.

Johnson teamed with fellow reservists Tom Egan and Clyde Wright to engineer the Angels' double victory at Chicago. His run-scoring single and eighth homer of the season gave Wright, pitching on a weekend pass, an early 2-0 lead in the opener and the slender southpaw went on to nail his 15th victory with relief help from Mel Queen.

Johnson stroked two more singles, boosting his average to .323, and scored twice in the nightcap. He trails league-leader Carl Yastrzemski of Boston by three points in the AL batting race.

Egan, who completed his two-week Air Force stint with Johnson, caught both games and poled an eighth-inning homer in the opener.

Chuck Dobson, who had a 6-11 lifetime mark against the Twins, handed them their first shutout setback in 126 regular season games to trigger Oakland's sweep before a season-high Minnesota crowd of 41,339.

He fired a four-hitter for his seventh consecutive victory since the All-Star break.

Mincher, discarded by the Twins four years ago, drove in two runs in the first game, then delivered four in the nightcap with his 19th and 20th homers.

Roy White powered the Yankees past Baltimore in the first game, tying it with a two-out, two-run single in the ninth and poling a two-run homer in the 11th.

Frank Robinson, out of the Orioles' starting line-up with a shoulder injury, pinch-hit a double in the 11th inning of the nightcap to trigger the deciding three-run volley after the Yanks had fought back from an early 6-0 deficit.

The Senators scored five runs on one hit—Rick Reichardt's two-run single—five walks and an error in the sixth inning of the opener to beat Sam McDowell despite a Cleveland triple play.

The Indians bounced back to earn the split as Tony Horton drilled a two-run homer and Vada Pinson doubled home two more runs.

Yastrzemski beat out an infield single with two out in the first inning and the Red Sox strated Mickey Lolich for six more hits in succession for a commanding 5-0 jump. Ray Culp blanked the Tigers until the eighth and received ninth-inning relief help from Gary Wagner.

Gus Gil stole home for the deciding run in the seventh, and Dave May drove in two runs with a single and double as the Brewers came from behind to whip Kansas City. Ed Kirkpatrick hit a pair of homers for the Royals.

West 100-94 Over East in Basketball

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Jim Hamilton of Fort Smith was down on himself Saturday after the first half of the High School All-Star basketball game.

"I just couldn't figure it out," said Hamilton. "I just decided I wasn't going to give up."

Hamilton scored 18 of his 26 points in the final 13 minutes as the West rallied for a 100-94 overtime victory over the East.

Hamilton, who was named the game's most valuable player, put the West ahead for good 96-94 with 1:16 left in the overtime when he sank a 15 foot jump shot. The East did not have a chance after Altheimer's Sam Witherspoon missed a layup and Camden Fairview's Shaddy Patton grabbed the rebound.

Patton scored 15 points for the West. James Washington of Little Rock McClellan led the East with 18 points and Witherspoon contributed 15.

The West trailed from the opening minutes until 32 seconds deep in the final quarter. At that point, Hamilton sank two free throws to give his team a 67-66 lead.

The East, protecting a 90-88 lead, went into a stall with 1:37 left in the game, but Witherspoon lost the ball out of bounds. Less than a minute later, Ed Tatum of Fort Smith Northside gunned in a jump shot to send the game into overtime.

"Shady (Patton) really did a heck of a job of guarding (Lonnie) Webber," Hamilton said after the game. "That had to be the difference, both for us and for me."

The 6-4 Patton outrebounded the 6-9 Webber 12-11 and held the Searcy giant to 13 points.

West Beats East 20-9 in All-Star Game

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The West broke an eight-game losing streak, defeating the East 20-9 in the High School All-Star football game here Saturday night.

The East managed less than 100 yards total offense and was ineffective offensively throughout much of the contest for three reasons:

—Steve Cox of Springdale.
—The loss of Terry McFarland of West Memphis.
—Fumbled snaps from center.

Cox, a defensive end who is headed for the University of Arkansas, was in the East backfield constantly and set up the West' first touchdown when he hurried Tom Ed Gooden of Carlisle into a short punt.

McFarland, the highly regarded running back who is also headed for the U of A, was injured on the second play of the game and never returned to action.

Both Gooden and quarterback Dudley Taylor of Russellville had trouble with the snaps from Little Rock Hall's Jim Long, who was playing center for the first time in his career.

The West scored first on a 20-yard pass from Fayetteville quarterback Johnny Mack to teammate Jerry Morris. Artis Martin of Hope, who led all ball carriers with 82 yards on 16 carries, scored the second touchdown on a nine-yard run and the final score came on an eight - yard burst by Henry Parker Jr. of Alma.

Gooden's 31-yard field goal and a touchdown plunge by McGehee's Edward Douglas, following a blocked punt, accounted for the East's points.

US Wins Curtis Cup Over England

NEWTON, Mass. (AP) — The United States had the Curtis Cup back in its usual showcase today after continuing domination of the British Isles in the biennial trans-Atlantic golf competition begun in 1932.

The Americans won the trophy for the sixth straight time and the 12th since its inception by overwhelming their amateur counterparts from overseas 11½-5½ Saturday at Brae Burn Country Club.

The British team, considered one of the strongest in years, was bitterly disappointed. It thought it had a chance of regaining the cup won by the British just twice. Two matches have been tied.

"We did our best, but it wasn't enough," said non-playing captain Jeanne Bisgood of the British team. "We're only sorry we couldn't have done better. We'll just have to try harder in 1972."

The United States collected seven victories and two ties in the 12 singles matches. They won three and halved one in scotch foursome matches.

The Americans were led by western amateur and former national intercollegiate queen Jane Bastanchury, 22, of Whittier, Calif., who won two singles, including one against English amateur champion Dinah Oxley.

Other standouts were Shelley Hamlin, 21, of Fresno, Calif., Cynthia Hill, 22, of South Haven, Mich., nine-time Indiana state champion Alice Dye, 43, of Indianapolis, and Tish Preuss of Pompano Beach, Fla., a five-time Curtis Cup player.

Derr, Paschal Still Around and Winning

By BLOYS BRITT

AP Auto Racing Writer
Ernie Derr never made it to the big time of auto racing—at least on the scale of Indianapolis, Darlington or Daytona Beach. He simply had no desire to race at those places.

Jim Paschal not only made it to Darlington and Daytona, but he made it big—$242,000 in winnings in 18 years as a pioneer driver on the South's big ovals.

Both elder statesmen of stock car racing are still around and winning. Paschal, now 45, drove a 1970 Javelin to a lap victory over Mustang's David Pearson in the Blue Hen 200 at Dover, Del., Sunday.

Derr, now pushing 50 and a grandfather twice around, preferred to knock down the fences in his own backyard—the Midwest—and spend most of his time at home with his wife and two sons. Today, he is probably the biggest race winner the sport has ever known. His victory chart shows more than 350 wins in 25 years.

Occasionally he gets beat, as he did last Friday night in a 50-lapper at Burlington, Iowa. Fred Horn, a solid performer himself, handed Derr his fourth defeat in 22 races this year in a neck-and-neck joust on a half mile dirt track.

The loss, however, did little to slow Derr's march toward his 11th straight driving title in the International Motor Contest Association.

Meantime, rain washed out a pair of NASCAR 100 milers. A Grand National event at Kingsport, Tenn., was reset for Aug. 26 and one at Winston-Salem, N.C., for Aug. 28.

The Grand National drivers thus will be idle until this weekend, when they go to Michigan International Speedway near Jackson for a 400-mile event that pays $100,000 in prize money.

On this trip, however, they must conform to a new NASCAR rule designed to reduce the speeds of the huge stockers. Bill France, who heads the NASCAR circuit, ruled that a special plate must be fitted under carburetors to limit the flow of fuel to the engines. The plates are expected to slow the race cars as much as 10 miles an hour.

The move has the blessings of the Professional Drivers Association, made up of most of the NASCAR regulars. Since many of them had expressed concern about the increasingly high speeds at such ovals as Daytona and Talladega, Ala., the PDA said the move was a step in the right direction.

Though NASCAR has had only one driver fatality in nearly four years, two drivers and eight spectators were killed on short ovals during July. And only Sunday, five spectators died when two cars bolted off a road course near Karlskoga, Sweden, and plowed into a crowd.

Paschal's average speed at Dover was 102.462 m.p.h. Pearson had won the pole after qualifying at 124.124 m.p.h.

The Brooklyn Bridge was the first great suspension bridge ever built.

Lee Is Matched Play Champion

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Stan Lee, 18, of Heber Springs won the Arkansas State Matched Play Championship here Sunday by defeating Mike Morrison of Little Rock, 5-4.

Lee, the medalist in the State High School Golf Tournament, will attend the University of Houston on a golf scholarship this fall.

County Farm Election Draws Near

Eligible farm voters have only a few days left in which to circulate and sign nominating petitions for ASC community committees. August 17 is the final date petitions may be filed at the Hempstead County ASCS Office. Mail elections are set for the second week in September. "I want to re-emphasize to farmers who are eligible to vote that nominating candidates by petition is of prime importance. If six or more eligible candidates are nominated by petition in an ASC community, no other names will go on the ballot. In the past, the incumbent community committee also had the privilege of making nominations. Now, a community committee may nominate only if fewer than six eligible candidates are nominated by petition—and the committee may nominate only the number of candidates needed to make up a full slate of six nominees," H. B. Gilbert, chairman of the Hempstead County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee said.

No special forms are required for a petition—only a sheet of paper naming the candidate and the ASC community are required on each petition. Only one candidate may be named on a petition but voters may sign as many petitions as they want.

In general, to be eligible either to become a candidate or to vote, a person must have a farm interest in the community and must be eligible to participate in one or more programs administered by the County ASCS office. Full details on eligibility requirements for candidates and voters are available at the County ASCS Office, along with a list of known eligible voters in the county.

Each year eligible farmers nominate and elect ASC community committee of three members and two alternates. The community committee elect persons to fill vacancies on their County ASC Committee and also help administer farm programs such as farm acreage allotments and bases, and conservation cost-sharing.

"Our Hempstead County ASC Committee hopes that this year farmers will nominate by petition every candidate whose name goes on a ballot," he concluded.

Tony Roche New US Pro Tennis Champ

By DAVE O'HARA

Associated Press Sports Writer
BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP)—Tony Roche of Australia is the new champion of the U.S. Pro Tennis Tournament, but don't write off the king. Rod Laver is dethroned, but still the world ruler.

Roche, 25, spoiled his countryman Laver's 32nd birthday by rallying for a stunning 3-6, 6-4, 1-6, 6-2, 6-2 victory Sunday in the championship windup of the $50,000 event at Longwood.

"All I have to say is that Tony doesn't have any respect for age," Laver said after falling in a bid for his fifth straight U.S. pro title and sixth in seven years.

Laver appeared en route to an easy victory after winning the third set. However, he elected to take a brief rest and, after a 15-minute intermission, Roche bounced back to virtually chase him off the synthetic court barked by a hot sun.

"I don't know what happened to Rod," Roche said. "I played well after the first set, but he just fell away. His game went to pieces. If you are not serving well, you are going to be in trouble. And he had trouble serving."

Despite his victory, Roche warned against writing off Laver, the undisputed king of world tennis who is the all-time top money winner.

"I think when he is playing well there isn't much I can do, or anyone else can do, against him," Roche said. "I think he has been having a little trouble with his hand the last couple of months, but I don't think there has been any deterioration in his game."

Laver, who had won 19 straight matches at Longwood, was able to do little right after the intermission. He was broken on all four services in the fourth set. Then he was broken in the second final games of the deciding set.

Roche collected $12,000 for his victory. Laver picked up $6,000, boosting his winnings for the year over $124,000, bettering the record of $123,431 he earned in 1969.

Laver and Aussie Roy Emerson also shared $2,000 for defeating Ismail El Shafei of the United Arab Republic and Denmark's Torben Ulrich 6-1, 7-6 in the doubles final. El Shafei and Ulrich settled for $1,000 runner-up money.

Some Relief From Heat Is Expected

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Some relief from the heat and humidity is expected for Arkansas through Tuesday as a weak cool front across southern Missouri drifts southward across the state.

The front follows a line of heavy thunderstorms that moved across northeast Arkansas Sunday.

A severe thunderstorm at Beebe Sunday night caused damage to power lines and trees with some minor flooding in the streets.

Locally heavy rains caused some flooding Sunday in Newport where more than six inches of rain fell. Patterson, located just south of Newport, reported about five inches.

A line of heavy thunderstorms that moved into northwest Arkansas from Oklahoma Sunday prompted the U.S. Weather Bureau to issue a severe thunderstorm warning for Crawford, Sebastian and Scott counties early today, but the threat of severe weather ended with no damage reported.

Highs Sunday ranged from 104 at Fort Smith to 83 at Jonesboro.

Rainfall recorded during the 24-hour period ending at 7 a.m. today included .36 of an inch at Fayetteville, .47 at Harrison, .68 at Jonesboro, .07 at Pine Bluff, .05 at El Dorado, .26 at Memphis, .05 at Little Rock and 1.03 at Fort Smith.

Jongleur

Miss JoH Still Women's Champ

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Martha Jett, 17, of Little Rock successfully defended her women's state golf title Saturday, sinking a 25-foot birdie putt on the 19th hole to defeat Dot Germain of Blytheville.

Miss Blalock Wins Ladies Golf Tourney

By ED SHEARER

Associated Press Sports Writer
ATLANTA (AP) — Fifteen months ago Jane Blalock joined the women's professional golf tour without a sponsor and with only $200 in her purse, but she was determined to succeed.

She chose to give up dating because "there was no carousing around for me. I knew I had to concentrate on golf so I could stay on the tour."

The 24-year-old blonde from Portsmouth, N. H., changed her no dating policy Sunday. She charged from six strokes, five shots behind, to win the $3,000 first prize in the $20,000 Lady Carling Open Golf Tournament.

"I think I'll play around now," she said, smiling. "Bring on the boys."

Miss Blalock closed with a sizzling three-under-par 70 for a 54-hole total of 221, one shot better than veteran Betsy Rawls, who finished with a 72 and missed a tie when her five-foot birdie putt on No. 15 rimmed the cup.

It was the first tour victory for Miss Blalock, the 1969 LPGA Rookie of the Year. Her final round included a hole-in-one on the 180-yard par 3 seventh with a 4 wood. On No. 6 she holed a 30-foot chip shot from off the green and on No. 17 she made a 20-foot downhill putt for a par.

The 6,300-yard, par 37-36—73 Indian Hills Country Club course was a disaster area for Pam Barnett of Charlotte, N. C., who set the pace the first two rounds with totals of 70 and 146. She skied to a 79, finishing in a tie for seventh at 225, taking a triple bogey 7 on No. 6 and a double bogey 6 on No. 8.

Donna Caponi closed with a 72 and tied for third at 223 with Sandra Haynie, who had a 76.

Kathy Whitworth, the defending champion, had a 71 to tie Gloria Ehret at 224. Carole Jo Skala matched Miss Barnett's 225.

J. Goodman, 1933 Open Champ, Dies

SOUTH GATE, Calif. (AP)—Johnny Goodman, who said he loved golf "too much to make it a business" after winning the U.S. Open as an amateur in 1933, is dead at age 60.

Goodman died of a heart attack Saturday at his home in this Los Angeles suburb, where he had lived for the past 20 years after playing on three U.S. Walker Cup teams, winning the National Amateur crown in 1937 and becoming the last of five amateurs to capture the Open.

Despite disdain of playing for pay, Goodman turned pro about 10 years ago, competing in some of the smaller tournaments and giving lessons.

Wyatt Gives Saints Last-Second Win

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — Doug Wyatt may be a defensive rookie with the New Orleans Saints, but he's experienced enough to know which way to run with a football and that knowledge gave the Saints a last-second 14-13 victory over the Minnesota Vikings.

Wyatt picked up a loose fumble from Vikings rookie George Kemp and rambled 50 yards into the end zone with four seconds remaining to tie the game 13-13 Saturday. Tom Dempsey then kicked the deciding conversion in pro footballs annual Hall of Fame game.

Wyatt's heroics were a fitting climax to a day which saw four former National Football League greats, including Viking Coach Tom Fears, inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame here. The other honorees were High McElhenry, Jack Christiansen and Pete Pihus.

Saratoga May Determine '70 Colt Champ

By TED MEIER

Associated Press Sports Writer
More and more it appears as if the outcome of the $100,000 Travers at Saratoga a week from Saturday probably will determine the 3-year-old colt champion of 1970.

The results of the Monmouth Invitational Handicap and the Whitney Stakes over the weekend made it evident today that the divisional crown is up for grabs.

At the start of the year Silent Screen, the 2-year-old champion of 1969, was considered the most likely candidate to be voted the 1970 champ in the annual year-end balloting by racing secretaries and sports writers.

Then along came My Dad George, Dust Commander, Personality, Corn Off The Cob, Well Mannered and now Twice Worthy and Judgable.

Twice Worthy, who raced only once in 1969, made his 1970 record four-for-four with an impressive four-length victory in the $100,000 Monmouth Handicap that closed out the Monmouth Park meeting.

The son of Ambioipso, ridden by Johnny Ruane, went the 1 1/4 miles in the track record time of 1:48 2-5 and beat a field that included Dust Commander, Well Mannered, Roman Scout, Admiral's Shield and Corn Off The Cob.

Judgable, a fugitive from the $15,000 claiming ranks, scored a decisive three-length triumph over older horses in the $60,400 Whitney.

Just as he did in winning the Dwyer Handicap at Aqueduct as a 39-1 long shot, jockey Bobby Woodhouse took Judgable right to the lead and stayed in front all the way in scoring again at long odds. This time he went off at 28-1.

The son of Delta Judge ran the 1 1/4 miles in 1:48 2-5, the same as Twice Worthy, and humbled a field that included Hydrologist, Dewan, Pleasure Seeker and Verbatim.

Distinctive took the $55,650 William DuPont Jr. Handicap at Delaware Park, Office Queen the $57,500 Cotillion Handicap at Liberty Bell, Pass The Drink the $32,300 Round Table Handicap at Arlington, Cougar II the $22,050 Escondido Handicap at Del mar and L'Aiglon the $21,020 Gen. John Grend Handicap at Rockingham.

Jockey Rides 6000 Winning Race Horses

DEL MAR, Calif. (AP) — When Bill Shoemaker crossed the wire with his 5,999th winner, many of the 17,500 fans booed, as they frequently do when the little jockey wins or loses.

Several races later the 38-year-old Shoemaker became the second jockey in history to ride 6,000 winning horses. No boos were audible amidst the cheers and applause Saturday as hundreds jammed the rail, holding out winning and losing tickets and programs for autographs.

Miss Stacy Favored in Tourney

RYE, N.Y. (AP) — The U.S. Junior Girls' Golf Championship tournament starts today with Hollis Stacy, of Savannah, Ga. favored to retain the title.

Miss Stacy won the title at Dallas last year at the age of 15, the youngest champion in the 21-year history of the tourney. Since then she has won the North-South Women's Amateur against many of the top players in the country.

Another Southern miss, 17-year-old Martha Jones of Decatur, Ala. who was the medalist last year, is among the others in the field of 88 who will tee off in the first round of qualifying at the Apawamis Club course.

Miss Jones was beaten by Miss Stacy in the semifinals of match play last year.

Two rounds of qualifying medal play at 36 holes are scheduled for today and Tuesday. The survivors start match play Wednesday with the championship final listed for Saturday.

WANTED!

Men & Women

Age 18 and over. Prepare now for U.S. Civil Service job openings during the next 12 months. Government positions pay high starting salaries. They provide much greater security than private employment and excellent opportunity for advancement. Many positions require little or no specialized education or experience.

But to get one of these jobs, you must pass a test. The competition is keen and in some cases only one out of five pass. Lincoln Service has helped thousands prepare for these tests every year since 1948. It is one of the largest and oldest privately owned schools of its kind and is not connected with the Government.

For FREE booklet on Government jobs, including list of positions and salaries, fill out coupon and mail at once — TODAY! You will also get full details on how you can prepare yourself for these tests. Don't delay — ACT NOW! (Licensed by the State Board of Education.)

LINCOLN SERVICE, Dept. 22-4B

Oswald: "You should suspect some of your opponents all of the time and all of your opponents some of the time but you shouldn't suspect all of your opponents all of the time."

Jim: "You sound like Abraham Lincoln. What are you driving at?"

Oswald: "Actually, I am leading up to a situation in which South was afraid to try a safety play in one suit for fear that it would turn out to have been an unsafety play. West opened the deuce of spades. East won with the king and returned the trey to dummy's ace. Now South led a small diamond from dummy. East won the trick with the 10 and played the eight of spades to declarer's queen."

Jim: "I can see what happened. South could have ducked another diamond and made sure of three diamond tricks but he was afraid of a 5-3 spade break and the loss of two more spades."

Oswald: "Exactly. Or maybe he just didn't bother about the chance of a 4-1 diamond break and was going after an overtrick. Anyway, he played a high diamond from dummy, whereupon it was all over. He struggled manfully with hearts and clubs but couldn't pull a ninth trick from the wreckage."

Jim: "He should have ducked that second diamond. The opening lead of the spade deuce looked like fourth best of four. In addition, East had returned the three-spot to indicate that he also held four spades. South should have trusted one of them and played safe in diamonds."

They Can Politick On Their Own Time

Those who think a university should be a geyser of activism rather than a well of knowledge have promoted the idea of suspending classes for a week or two before the November election to let students work in political campaigns.

Not Florida universities, said the State Board of Regents. And rightly so.

Universities are there to teach, not to provide recruits for political movements. Any student who feels strongly enough about a candidate or cause can do his campaigning after working hours as he'll have to do once he leaves the campus and goes into a business or profession. — Tamp (Fla.) Tribune

Ever Wetter

It probably won't come as a surprise, but Americans drank more alcoholic beverages last year than in any year since record-keeping began in 1934. According to the Distilled Spirits Institute, Americans averaged consuming 1.80 gallons of liquor per capita in 1969. Californians had the highest consumption, 44, 013,396 gallons, while New Yorkers downed 41,993,080 gallons.

Georgia and her sister states were far down the list, leading some, perhaps, to the conclusion that Southerners are a more temperate breed of Americans. It could be, though, that the Institute's records just stopped short of the corn varieties. — Tifton (Ga.) Gazette

Pavement Plato Would Like to Know What Women Really Want

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Curbstone comments of a Pavement Plato:

What is it women really want?

This question has created a great deal of honest male bewilderment in the wake of the new women's liberation movement.

Among the stated aims of the movement are these: child care centers, equal pay for equal work, an end to job discrimination, abortion on demand, equality with men at every level, and a refusal to be treated as mere sexual objects.

While some of these aims are laudable, and some debatable, others probably aren't even desired by a majority of women

Russian Spy Aircraft Collects Radar Data on U.S. Mercy Trips

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union disguised military aircraft as civilian planes and apparently collected radar and photo-intelligence data about U.S. military bases and North American coastal areas during mercy flights to Peru last month, defense sources report.

The sources said these judgments were based on routes flown by the planes and photographs and ground observations of Soviet AN12 and AN22 transports refueling at a base used by the U.S. Air Force and Navy at Keflavik, Iceland.

The Soviets declared the flights were to ferry emergency supplies to earthquake-devastated Peru.

Pictures show the planes were equipped with radar boosters and wing antennas that experts said usually are found on military rather than commercial type Russian planes.

Also, ground observers reported seeing camera ports closing as Soviet planes landed at Keflavik after making wide, sweeping approaches that gave a broad view of the base.

An AN12 "Pathfinder" plane bound for Peru also was reported to have flown over the Kindley Naval Air Station in Bermuda, an important U.S. Navy anti-submarine base.

Defense sources said a close-up view of the Soviet aircraft on the ground at Keflavik indicated they had been dressed up rather hastily to look like civilian aircraft by painting on the insignia and markings of Aeroflot, the Russian International airline.

However, the AN12's had gun turrets in their tails.

The AN22s, huge planes somewhat comparable to the American C5, had windows in the nose which experts said could be used by bombardiers.

This was the first indication the Russians considered AN22s a dual purpose plane for use as transports and possibly as bombers.

Two Injured in Wreck on Highway 29

At 8 a.m. Monday on Highway 29 south a truck driven by Miss Curtis Burns of Rt. 1, Patmos, went out of control on wet pavement while passing another vehicle, left the road and struck a tree.

Miss Burns and a passenger, Miss Becky O'Dell, were brought to Memorial Hospital for treatment. Miss Burns was transferred to Wadley Hospital at Texarkana. Extent of her injuries could not be immediately determined but she was painfully injured.

Arkansas State Police Trooper Robert Neel investigated.

Sunday was graduation day at Red River Vocational Technical School with 162 receiving certificates in various departments. Speaker for the occasion was Dr. O. J. Byrnside Jr., executive director of National Business Education Association, Washington, D. C. During the ceremonies Dr. Byrnside was presented an Arkansas Traveler certificate from Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller. The presentation was made by Haskell Jones. Mr. Byrnside was introduced by J. W. Rowe, director of the local Tech School.

Miss Becky Huff opened ceremonies with the procession and the welcome was made by George Drautz, a student. The Rev. Norris Steele, pastor of the Methodist Church, gave the invocation. R. R. Pendergrass, director of extension, presented the class and Walter J. Morris, a student, gave the benediction.

Certificates were awarded to 12 Basic Heavy Equipment Operators; 10 in the Advanced Heavy Equipment Operation class; 33 Basic Diesel and Heavy Truck Mechanics class; six in the Advanced Diesel and Heavy Truck Mechanics; 20 Basic Welding graduates; eight Basic Machine Shop and Plant Maintenance; three Advanced Machine Shop and Plant Maintenance; 26 Licensed Practical Nurses; 11 in Technical Forestry; 23 in Business Education and 10 General Education Development Graduates.

A large crowd attended.

Bloodmobile Returning Here Aug. 17

The hospitals of Hope had an adequate blood supply for emergencies and surgery and other use in 1969-70 because the residents of Hempstead County gave more than they used for the first time in many years.

Giving blood when the Bloodmobile visits the city takes about 45 minutes and the blood is rarely ever misused by the donor.

However, it may mean the saving of a life to a person in need. The Bloodmobile will make only four visits to Hope in fiscal 1971. Haskell Jones, Bloodmobile chairman, is hopeful of getting the years program off to a good start with 110 points on this trip.

Remember, chances are you will never miss that pint of blood you gave, but as a result others may live.

Justice Wants Court System Updated

By BARRY SCHWEID

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Chief Justice Warren E. Burger proposed today creation of a council representing all branches of the federal government to bring the nation's court system up to date.

"In the supermarket age," he said, "we are like a merchant trying to operate a cracker barrel corner grocery store with the methods and equipment of 1900."

Burger proposed updating of the judicial system and warned of expecting too much of the federal courts in his first state of the judiciary message to the American Bar Association.

The white-haired jurist said the courts need more money, judges and trained administrators and a streamlining of their trial and appeals processes to retain public confidence.

Act Followed Refusal to Free Rebels

By OSCAR J. SERRAT
Associated Press Writer

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay (AP) — The Tupamaro guerrillas executed American police expert Daniel A. Mitrione during the night because the Uruguayan government refused to release an estimated 150 political prisoners as ransom for him and two other kidnaped foreign officials.

Mitrione's body was found bound and gagged in a blood-stained car parked on a city street. He had been shot twice in the head. A bandage covered the chest wound he suffered when he was kidnaped July 31 while driving to work.

Police sealed off the area, removed the body from the car and declined to say where they had taken it. They refused to give official confirmation that it was Mitrione's, but police officials told newsmen there was little or no doubt.

Unconfirmed reports circulated that a second body had been found, but the police said nothing.

The abandoned car was found at an intersection about four miles from the center of the city. People living near the intersection said they had not heard shots or cars roaring off. This indicated that the Tupamaros had killed Mitrione, driven the body to the intersection and left the area on foot.

The car had been stolen Sunday. It was stained with blood. Mitrione apparently was killed more than 12 hours after the Sunday noon deadline set by the Tupamaros for his execution. They had said they would kill him because President Jorge Pacheco Areco refused to free an estimated 150 political prisoners as ransom for Mitrione and two other foreigners kidnapped by the leftist guerrilla organization.

The Tupamaros have said nothing about what they plan to do with their other captives—Brazilian Consul Aloyzio Mares Dias Gomide, 41, and Claude Fly, 65, of Fort Collins, Colo., a U.S. soil expert working for the Uruguayan government.

Dias Gomide was kidnaped July 31, the day Mitrione was seized. Fly was kidnaped last Friday.

Mitrione, 50-year-old former police chief of Richmond, Ind., is the second foreigner killed in the wave of Latin-American political kidnappings that began last September. Guatemalan rebels murdered the West German ambassador, Count Karl von Sprei, last April after the Guatemalan government refused to release 17 political prisoners.

Local radio stations received several anonymous telephone calls shortly after the deadline hour Sunday reporting that Mitrione had been executed. The callers also said the other two hostages would be killed but the Tupamaros issued no communication to confirm either report.

Congress Is Flirting With Free TV Time

By BROOKS JACKSON
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — When it comes to television and politics, Federal Communications Commissioner Nicholas Johnson told Congress last week, "that little screen is the sum total of the ball game."

Congress is beginning to believe it.

Already on the verge of passing a bill to restrict the use of television in campaigns, Congress is flirting with the idea of voting itself free air time to express its views.

Politicians also have peppered the FCC with requests for free air time or rule changes allowing them to buy time to boost their pet ideas, so far to little avail.

Even the television-wary House of Representatives has voted to follow the years-old Senate practice of broadcasting some committee hearings.

Senate Republican Leader Hugh Scott even proposed this week that his chamber allow broadcast coverage of a few special floor debates each year.

The politicians' concern represents an increasing feeling that television focuses attention on the president at the expense of congressmen. Some legislators also feel television makes election winners out of obscure but rich and photogenic office-seekers.

Both effects are disturbing to some incumbent members of Congress.

Various attempts have been made to change the rules of the tele-political "ball game."

The House hopes to take up late this week its version of a Senate-passed bill that would limit campaign television expenditures. Its passage also would clear the way for free presidential television debates like the Kennedy-Nixon meetings of 1960, and would require broadcasters to sell time to politicians at their lowest commercial rates. Since the measure is thought to favor incumbents its chances for passage are rated good.

The Senate communications subcommittee is considering a proposal by Sen. J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., to require broadcasters to give four prime-time segments each year to the House, Senate and judiciary to express their views. Fulbright said the President's traditional access to the airways threatened to upset the balance of powers between the branches of government. His measure was opposed by networks, broadcasters, Republicans, and the FCC. But subcommittee chairman John O. Pastore, D-R.I., extracted promises from the networks to consider voluntarily giving Congress some time as an experiment to see if the 535 members of Congress could agree on ways to use it.

Decregation Hurts Staffing

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Education Commissioner A. W. Ford says the "degregation problem" is making it difficult for several Arkansas school districts to staff their schools for the coming fall.

Ford said Saturday that a teacher shortage existed in some districts because of the "protection of teachers to go into a situation that might prove difficult."

GOP Governors Feel Nixon Well Liked

By WALTER R. MEARS
AP Political Writer

LAKE OF THE OZARKS, Mo. (AP) — Republican governors generally rate President Nixon's popularity high among the voters, and they hope some of it will rub off on their own campaigns in an autumn race against odds which favor Democratic state house gains.

Democrats forecast inroads into the 32-18 majority the Republicans now enjoy among governors, and the chairman of the GOP Governors Association acknowledges the arithmetic favors that outcome.

"We have a very difficult road with 35 governors up and 24 of them now Republican," said Gov. Raymond P. Shafer of Pennsylvania, the chairman. "The odds are against us. We're going to do everything we can to fight those odds."

Gov. Warren E. Hearnes of Missouri, a Democrat, said Democrats could fashion a state house comeback as dramatic as that achieved by Republicans after their landslide defeats six years ago, when Lyndon B. Johnson swept to the White House.

"The odds on are for the Democrats to make some gains," he said Sunday. Hearnes appeared on the NBC radio and television program "Meet the Press."

With elections three months away, the state executive began three days of business sessions at the 62nd National Governors conference in the guard-luxury of a lakeside resort.

Extraordinary security precautions gave a garrison atmosphere to their secluded retreat. Hearnes said there had been no threats of disruption, and called the picket duty and patrols of National Guardsmen and police simply "the old ounce of prevention."

The first controversy facing the governors is a proposal that they recommend broadening of the federal highway trust fund so that the money could be spent for subways and other modes of transportation, as well as for roadbuilding.

Highway interests aimed a barrage of telegrams at the governors, urging rejection of a proposed policy statement asking Congress to let the states make transfers from the transportation fund.

The wires came from roadbuilders, automobile manufacturers, truckers and motorists associations.

Gov. Daniel J. Evans of Washington discussed the lobbying campaign with his transportation committee and said governors "don't need the help of special interest groups" in making their decisions.

Secretary of Transportation John A. Volpe said the flexible transportation aid fund could be instituted "in the not-too-distant future if we work together ...

"This, I firmly believe, is the direction in which we should probably head," Volpe said in a speech prepared for the governors.

Neither Nixon nor Vice President Spiro T. Agnew, the administration's designated liaison man with the governors, was scheduled to appear at the conference. Hearnes complained that liaison between the state house and the White House was deteriorating.

He said Agnew apparently had been given other duties, clearly a reference to the vice president's role as a Republican political orator and campaigner.

"It is fair to say Vice President Agnew, since the new assignment given him by the President, hasn't been able to meet with the governors," Shafer added in an interview.

The White House is sending its chief political operatives to meet with Republican governors and state house candidates Wednesday.

At home in Pennsylvania, Shafer said, the polls and his own assessment indicate Nixon has the support of an overwhelming majority of the voters.

Most Republicans offered similar assessments, although Gov. David F. Cargo of New Mexico said Nixon's popularity had dropped there. "This is a natural thing," said Cargo.

A Democratic retort from Gov. John N. Dempsey of Connecticut:

"I think the so-called honeymoon enjoyed by the Nixon administration is now over, and people are realistically beginning to assess the foreign and domestic programs. How much his popularity has declined will be reflected in this year's voting."

Democrats Calvin L. Ramp-ton of Utah and Robert W. Scott of North Carolina, two states Nixon carried two years ago, both said the President's rating had declined. Another Democrat, Robert B. Docking, said: "The President's popularity in Kansas remains high. Many Kansans are frustrated with the economy and rising unemployment."

Gov. Preston Smith of Texas, a Democrat, said opinion polls there gave Nixon a job performance rating "well above 50 per cent."

Republican Gov. John A. Love of Colorado, the conference chairman, said Nixon "has the approval and support of a substantial majority" there, and he estimated the ratio at 60 to 65 per cent.

Gov. Francis W. Sargent of Massachusetts, where Nixon ran far behind in 1968, said: "Since then, his popularity appears to have increased." Sargent said Nixon's handling of the Vietnam war, the economy, other teen-agers, a 21-year-old and four older tourists. The airline listed two of the students on International Fellowship's list as Peruvians, and it was thought some of those it listed as American might be Peruvian.

The airline said the Lockheed Electra carried 91 passengers and seven crew members, but and civil disorders will determine whether that trend continues.

Most of the passengers had flown to Cuzco, the ancient Inca capital 365 miles southeast of Lima, for an excursion to the Inca ruins at nearby Macchu Picchu. After the day of sight-seeing, the plane had just taken off from Cuzco for Lima when one of its four turboprop engines failed and the pilot, Capt. Alejandro Calejari, requested permission to return to Cuzco.
